

Calling all writers

to join the KMSA Reporting team!

Knowledge Management South Africa (KMSA) is a society for knowledge management professionals who are passionate about moving their discipline forward in their respective organisations while investing in themselves.

KMSA is in search for final year Journalism or Communication students who will support the KMSA Marketing team with writing opinion pieces, Social Media reporting and press releases from KMSA events, which are mostly held in Johannesburg. The opportunity will be available from April to December 2019.

Commitment from KMSA

Cover events registration costs for the appointed student.

Support with necessary transport to and from the venue.

Allocate a Board and/or committee member to support the appointed student.

Provide a feedback report to the institution and a letter of recommendation for future.

Interested students are to submit a short CV and letter of motivation to Mpho@vdw.co.za by 15 March 2019. Feedback will be provided to successful students on 29 March 2019.
